

NOLAY WITH YOUR EYES PEELED!

Find where all these photos were taken as you stroll around with your eyes peeled! But be careful as you take in the sights! Watch out for pavements, cars and other passers-by!

Under each photo, note the address (no. and street) or the building bearing the detail pictured.

Also, answer the questions, to which you can read the answer if you're just watching!

Enjoy your walk discovering the roofs of Nolay and hundreds of skylights that give you the eye!

.....
.....
.....

What famous man does this finger belong to?
At what age did this man die?
Where was he born?
Where did he die?
The finger is indicating, on a map, the name of a city where this strategist won a great victory; which city is it?

- Waterloo
- Wattignies
- Wasquehal

Help us to find all these skylights!

.....
.....
.....

One of the oldest houses in Nolay

.....
.....
.....

A grotesque mask that blows the evil spirit out of this medieval shop.

.....
.....
.....

As you pass by, admire the beautiful chestnut structure of the 14th-century covered market.

.....
.....
.....

How old is the house that bears this bull's eye?

.....
What was the motto of its owner, Sire Potier, a rich tanner?
.....

.....
.....
.....

Who are these two characters?

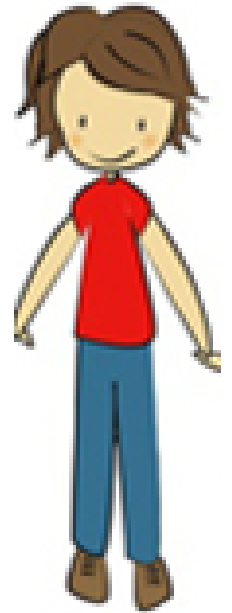

.....
What are they doing?

.....
When?

.....
.....
.....

The Cascade du Bout du Monde (waterfall at the end of the world) isn't as tall as the bell tower of Nolay Church!

How tall is the steeple?
25m 32m 38m

.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....

Renaissance house of the lawyer of the Abbess of Autun

.....
.....
.....

Emblem of the furriers: a press for the skins and a pair of pliers.

.....
.....
.....

What do you think furriers are? People who like dressing up as furry animals?

Nothing of the sort! They are craftsmen who dry and process animal skins.

.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....

Decorative glazed bricks from Ecuisses.

.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....

.....
.....
.....

If you can't answer these three questions, you can ask the baker

.....
.....
.....

What was the pulley used for?

.....

What is the purpose of the white pipe?

.....

.....
.....
.....

What was the role of the upper part of this building?

.....

.....
.....
.....

Have you found everything? So, your 'eyes peeled' investigation is finished. Bring your booklet to the Tourist Office where there's a little surprise in store.

Did you enjoy the route? Do you have any ideas to improve it further?

.....
.....
.....

Agence de tourisme de Nolay
13 rue de la République
21340 NOLAY

03.80.21.80.73
ot@nolay.com

